DEDICATION

When we need a smile

One's always there,

And for encouragement

There's a word of cheer;

As for discipline,

When there's a need,

Its always gentle, sure and fine

to get us neatly back in line.

We know whatever this one says

Is always kind and good for us.

She'll always have our very best

Of love, of honor, and of respect.

WE HONOR

MRS. REID

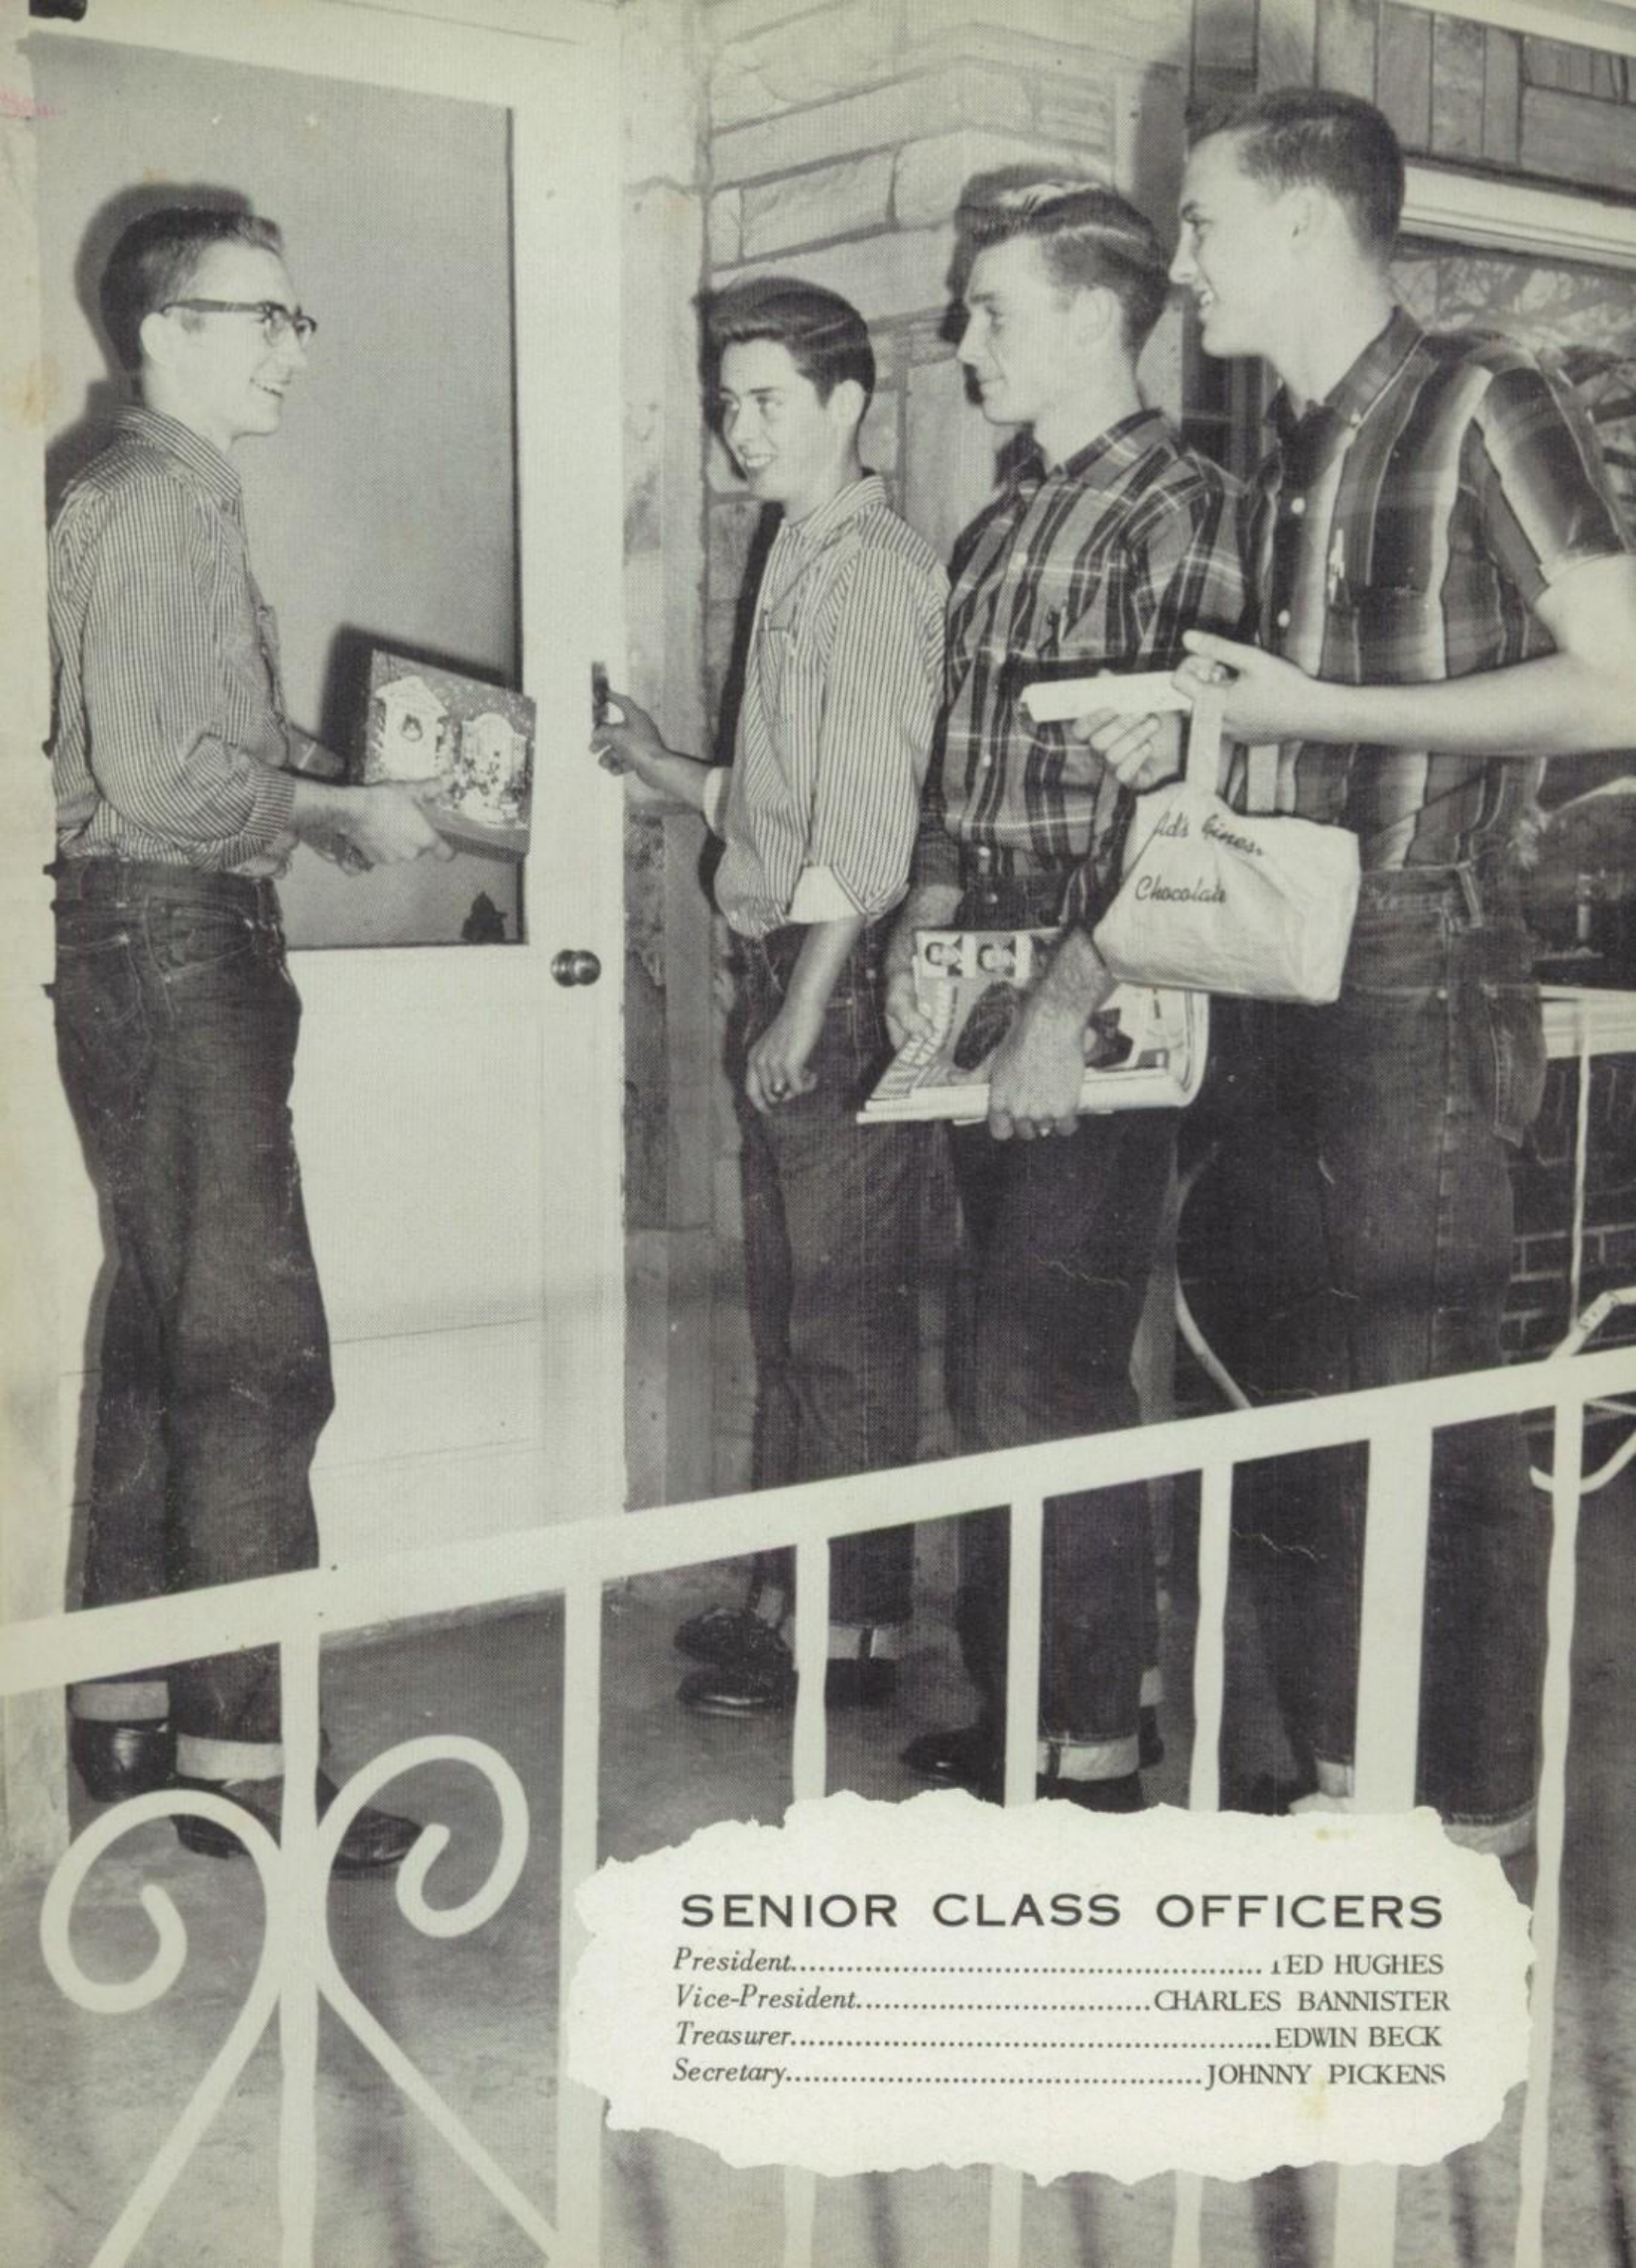

The way you've tried to understand
Our ways, though at times it seemed A thankless task, and deemed
It almost useless; yet this will stand
In our memories more than you've dared dream.

CLASS PROPHECY

Ah, I begin to see light. I shall now be able to read the future. I shall look into the mysteries of the unknown and tell each member of the Senior Class what he or she shall be doing ten years from now.

Who is this I see coming down the street? He is riding in a magnificent automobile. He stops at a bank and goes inside. Frank Pittman has become President of a large bank.

Now I see a great crowd of people who are all shouting and waving their hands. They are waiting for someone who is coming down the street bowing from left to right. Paul Wheelchel has just been elected Governor, and is on his way to Inaugural Ceremonies.

We are now on board an ocean liner headed for France. As I walk past the Captain's quarters the name on the door attracts my attention. Captain Benny Bryson. I could not pass without saying hello. He told me that Brenda Chestnut was his secretary on the liner.

As I leave his quarters I see a couple sitting on deck that seem to be very much in love. As I get nearer their faces seem very familiar. Linda Melton and Johnny Smith are on their honeymoon.

While in Paris I see a woman with dark hair and brown eyes, and by her smile I recognize her, my old school mate Jo Nan Freeman. By her stylish ways she has become a hat designer.

The scene changes, we are now in Florida. I see a woman short and fair, whom I think I have seen before. Why yes, Nancy Dillard has become the owner of a large fruit farm and spends all her time raising oranges and bananas.

While out West I see a large ranch, but who is the blonde giving instructions to all the cowhands. Donna Todd has become the owner of the largest ranch in Texas.

In Hollywood, California, I call in at M. G. M. Studio to see Barbara Cain and Linda Bennett, the two famous movie stars who are now playing in a nursery.

Billy New is the Make-Up Artist for M. G. M. One of the movie stars he made famous by his make up work is Jean Cox.

We are now in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at Convention Hall. The Boston Celtics have just defeated the Philadelphia Warriors, in a National Basketball game, as Bobby Johnson and Eddy Frazier took care of the defensive and offensive duties for the Celtics.

The scene changes quickly to Baltimore, Maryland. I see a large building with everything very still and quiet around it. Then I see a hospital sign on the lawn. As I enter the building whom do I see at the information desk but Linda Hudgins. She tells me that Shirley Williams and Rachel Sexton are nurses in the hospital.

As I walk down Broadway in New York City, whom do I meet? None other than David Page. He has become a great doctor and has won more fame in his profession than did John D. Rockefeller, Thomas A. Edison, or Henry Ford.

Then I find myself in a cab driving along the crowded boulevard. As we pass the Stork Club a great number of people are trying to get in. Then I notice the billboard which reads, "The Stork Club features Jan Padgett, The Female Elvis Presley."

My hand falls on a newspaper lying on the seat beside me. The headlines catch my interest, Ted Hughes has been elected President of the United States. Elmon Willis is Vice-President.

As I turn through the paper I see where Gloria Sorrells has been voted Best Dressed Woman of the World.

My attention is drawn to a picture on the right. Oh, yes, The Man of the Year is Wayne Hannah, owner of the Atlanta Journal, the largest newspaper in the South.

As I turn to the sports section I see where Bob Russell has arrived in Daytona Beach, Florida, for this years Convertible Race. Bob has won more times, and set more records than any other driver who has ever tested his skills on the hot sands of the beaches.

Thomas Ingle jockeyed home another winner in the million dollar Kentucky Derby.

Swimming star Jo Helen Britt has added another record to her list of six. She swam in the thirteen meter event today and finished in seven hours and nine seconds.

Tommy Perkins signed a one year contract with the New York Yankees for an estimated $68,000.

Charles Bannister has retired from Pro-Football and accepted the position of Coach for the Georgia Tech team.

Nancy Irvin, who has won five national golf tournaments, is going to Cuba to defend her title.

As I turn another page I see where Anne Hughes of G. S. C. W. has won the Pulitzer Prize for her new book which seems to be quite a success.

Vice-President Gerald Reagan of General Motors announced today that the '68 Chevrolet will be shown Saturday and he stated that, as always, the Chevrolet is the finest car in the low priced field. Ray Vining, Ford spokesman, said it would be a month before the Ford could be seen. Ford designer, Nelson Craft, said the Ford would have an entirely new body this year.

Dr. Mary Lisa McCord, Professor of Latin at Vassar College, will be in Georgia for a series of lectures at Emory University.

Senator Jerry Hardeman has finally succeeded in getting Congress to adjourn for three months despite Representative Billy Hopkins appeal to pass his bill before adjourning. The bill, opposed by Representative Joe Doster, will eliminate taxation.

I see where Gene Persall has become Director of Research for Popular Mechanics.

Turning over to the comics, I see that Gloria Edwards is still writing "Brenda Starr" and Betty Ann Wells, "Dennis, the Menace".

I glance out of the cab and see a big poster that reads, "New York Symphony, Buddy Cowan, conductor; Mary Stiles, Soprano".

We are now at the airport where a large passenger plane is coming in. At last it has landed, and the good looking pilot is getting off. Suddenly I recognize him as Robert Reynolds. The cute stewardess by his side is none other than Jean Fowler.

We are suddenly in Atlanta, Georgia. Walking down Peachtree, we glance up to see that Bobby Furlong's Orchestra is currently appearing in the Paradise Room. Tickling the ivory's is the popular pianist Reid Hopkins, Gayle Fortner is featured as soloist.

We are stopped by the large crowd that lines the sidewalk as a parade passes. A man is waving from the back seat of a black limousine. He must be someone of vast importance. At last he is turning around so that I can see his face; Edwin Beck by hard work and honesty has become Mayor.

Now I am swiftly carried back to Tucker, Georgia. I see a pretty white cottage with hedges running around the cottage, and children running around the hedges. Phyllis Kennedy and Larry Potts finally married and settled down here.

As I walk down Main Street in Tucker, I see a large sign that says, "Alice's Beauty Salon. Alice Rolader has finally become a hair stylist, and opened her own shop.

Coming out of the post office is Ann Medlock. She tells me that she is an English teacher at the high school, and that Lanette Brooks is Food Editor for the Ladies Home Journal.

As I continue my journey down the street, I meet Representative Everette Bailey. He tells me that he intends to run for Lieutenant Governor in the coming Primary.

Peggy Wheeler, Pat Russell, and Peggy McGee have formed a trio, and are appearing daily on Tucker's new radio station.

Marina Lovern has opened a new bakery and seems to be doing very well.

Now I see a large sign that says Royce's Grill. I decide to investigate further and find that Royce Hardeman is the owner. The head waitress is none other than Donna Weaver.

There's Johnny Pickens and McCurdy Williams who have become great lawyers, and are expecting to wed two members of the Tucker social set next month.

And whom do you think owns the city's only florist, Dianne McDonald.

There's Garry Moon, the town sheik. He has toured the world from coast to coast, but still remains an old bachelor.

And here am I, Jo Ann Knight, a newspaper woman who prefers to work for one instead of two.

Tucker Roars to Top 4-B in Contention

By GLENN VAUGHN
Special to The Atlanta Journal
TUCKER, Ga., Oct. 19—The Tiger Tigers Friday night became the front runners for the Region 4-B title by rocking the more and junior laden Rockdale County Bulldogs, 41-0.
Before the night was over Charles Bannister, Tiger captain and ace booter, had split the lights five out of six times
and had crowned JoNan Freeman
Homecoming Queen of Tucker School.

A capacity homecoming crowd saw the Tigers take command of the game the first time they got the ball. Quarterback Buddy Barrett tore through the middle of the Conyers line for 15 yards and the first Tiger score after good work by halfback Edwin Beck, tackle John Taylor and end Bobby Johnson.

In the second quarter speedy quarterback Gary Moon took the handoff and jetted around end for 20 yards away with the first TD.

Rockdale's one impressive play came in the second quarter, spearheaded by short,
stocky, classy passing by Richard Lott.

Another Tiger score in the second quarter was sparked by an around the end play by Bobby Johnson which netted 41 yards. Then a quick pass to Moon and a keep by Barrett put the ball on the Conyers one. Billy Crowder rumbled over to score.

Both Moon and Crowder scored in the third period from the end zone.

Tucker Tigers Enjoy Rebirth

By BILL JACKSON

Nearly three weeks ago, Tucker High scored an upset over State Class B Champion Morgan County, and the victory looms as the biggest boost ever made in Coach Terry Hodges' program.

The win over a team which had rolled up an unbeaten mark of 29 games created a "new spirit" in the school. Heavyweights, mid-dleweights and lightweights made a belated start, allowing the Region 4-B Tigers enough youngsters for a B team.

However, only one of the newcomers has a chance of moving into a regular job before the end of the season — fullback John Taylor. But Hodges is looking to the future with a little gleam.

"The interest picked up after we beat Morgan County (13-12). . . . Some big boys came out for the team . . . we even started our B team program a year ahead of time," Hodges commented.

The lack of experience is the biggest burden for the Tigers.
Three starters — quarterback
Buddy Barrett, halfback Gary Moon and tackle Charles Bannister—returned from the 1956
Tiger eleven.

Besides the returnees, the Tigers have little experience.
"We're pretty green," Hodges said. Even Hodges is making his head coaching start, succeeding D. D. Brooks.

"I couldn't say much about our prospects this season. . . . Only had the one good game (while winning two and losing one). . . .
We have a chance of matching last year's 5-5 season, and that

Tucker Roars Again, 33-

Tucker's Tigers showed a powerful drive and a well-geared offense in defeating Southwest, 33-0, on the Tucker
field.

Bobby Johnson and Edwin Beck contributed two TDs apiece.
Gary Moon opened the scoring activities in the quarter by going seven yards on the off-tackle route for the first touchdown. A Buddy Barrett to Johnson pass racked
the second Tucker touchdown.

Tucker Warms For Clarkston Game

Moon and Beck-Led Tigers
Race by Stone Mountain, 34-7

Special to The Atlanta Journal

STONE MOUNTAIN, Ga., Oct. 26—Tucker making plenty of noise in the Region 4-B (We used Stone Mountain to sharpen their claws
last week's showdown against Clarkston.

Tucker ripped up Stone Mountain, 34-7, Friday night for its fifth straight region triumph on the fancy running of Gary Moon and Edwin Beck. And now, the Tigers and Clarkston pit unbeaten marks next Friday at Clarkston.

The Tigers pushed across three third period touchdowns to turn the game into a rout. Tucker led at halftime, 14-0.

Moon, a 150-pounder, scooted
43 yards for the first touchdown, and then Buddy Barrett and Bobby Johnson combined on the final play of the first half for a four-yard scoring pitch. Charles Ban-

MADISON, Sept. 15 — Tucker High's Tigers pulled the biggest football upset of the young football season by edging Morgan County's two-time state defending Class B champs, 13-12, here Friday night.

The loss was Morgan's first in 28 games over a span that began in 1954.
